Bollington SciBar: The work of Alan Turing.

Alan Turing is well known for his cryptographic work at Bletchley Park in World War II. His work in mathematics and artificial intelligence is less well known, such as why do we see Fibonacci sequences (i.e. 0, 1, 1, 2, 3, 5, 8, 13, 21, 34...) in sunflower plants. 2012 is the centenary of Alan Turing's birth. Event starts 6.30 pm at The Vale Inn, Adlington Road, Bollington. Arrive early to get a seat. As always, anyone from Junior School age onwards is very welcome. You don't need to be an expert. Just bring an inquisitive mind!
More details at www.bollingtonscibar.co.uk

Saturday January 14th

All welcome. A small contribution is asked of non-members.

Knit and Natter Group

Why not come along to the Bollington Community Centre, Ovenhouse Lane and see old friends and meet new friends. Bring your knitting or get expert tuition from experienced knitters. On the other hand just come along and have a natter. There will be a small charge for a cup of tea. We meet the 2nd and 4th Thursday each month from 2.00 - 4.00. Please come along and enjoy a sociable afternoon

The next Bollington Festival will be in 2014.

The preparations have already begun and the fundraising starts now....

Become a Bollington Festival Friend to receive special advance invitations and discounts on a huge number of upcoming pre-Festival events from 2011 onwards plus many other advance benefits! Contact: festivalfriends@bollingtonfestival.org.uk or download a form from www.bollingtonfestival.org.uk

From as little as £1 per month Bollington Festival 100 Club is a monthly draw with generous cash prizes – 50% of the income from the 100 Club each month will be given back in 3 cash prizes initially (the remaining 50% will go towards the money needed to stage Festival 2014). As the 100 Club income increases each month, so the amount given in prize money and number of prizes will increase. To join, you can download a form from www.bollingtonfestival.org.uk or email 100Club@bollingtonfestival.org.uk
